Hornets Aim for Second Win; Grid Rally Tonight in Gymnasium

Rally To Feature Entertainment Tonight In Gym

Entertainment, songs and yells will be featured at the first rally of the semester which is set for 7:30 tonight in the new gymnasium.

Sacramento State College's yell leaders and song leaders will perform. Printed copies of SSC's songs and yells will be distributed, according to Don Baxter, Rally committee chairman.

Two soloists and a Dixieland band will top the entertainment bill. Don Paltha, a banjo soloist, will perform with the band while Bill Trieglaff will sing. Members of the Rally Committee will present a skit.

Baxter urged all students to attend the pep session. He stated that the rally is to welcome SSC's football team home after the Hornets' first win and also is intended to give the team a send-off for tomorrow night's home opener against Treasure Island Navy in the Grant stadium.

SPIRIT LEADERS — Six song leaders and five yell leaders will lead the Sacramento State College rooters tomorrow night at the first Hornet home game. They are Bob Tallmon, Nanci Pierce, Laquita Elder, Carol Farnsworth, Nancy Whiting, Noradele Veronis, Betty Sorracco, and Bill Kuykendall. Not present for the picture were Lloyd Snelson, head yell leader, Orley Bakken, and Mack Hansen, assistants.

SSC Meets TI In First Home Game At Grant Stadium

Gunning for victory number two, the Sacramento State College Hornets will tangle with the Treasure Island Naval Training Center tomorrow night in Grant Stadium with kickoff time slated for 8 p.m. The Navy eleven has racked up a 28 to 6 victory over the San Francisco Naval Shipyards and holds a 14 to 13 verdict over San Francisco State.

The Treasure Island outfit is led by two former College of Pacific stars in quarterback Roy Ottison and end George Wellman. The visitors will run from the straight T formation and will probably rely on passing for their main scoring punch. One bright spot, however, is the pass defense the Hornets have set up. In the Southern Oregon tussle the Green and Gold intercepted three passes and knocked down 12.

Coach Dave Strong stated that last week's 7 to 6 victory in the 1955 opener was a team effort which served as a morale booster. Strong said the boys played an outstanding defensive game as they held their opponents to 93 yards in the air and only 54 yards on the ground.

Although rolling up 204 yards in last Saturday's encounter, Strong stressed offense during this week's scrimmages because of mixups on certain plays which proved costly to the Hornets' cause.

Enrollment Rises To All-Time High

Dr. W. D. Albright, admissions officer, reported this week that attendance at Sacramento State College has risen to an all-time high this semester with a total enrollment of 4,251 students.

Of this total, 2,192 are regular day students (1,269 men and 923 women), an increase of 671 over last year's number of regular day students. Also the number of full-

Annual Dink Week Begins; Freshman Duties Outlined

Sacramento State College's third annual frosh week will begin Monday according to sophomore class president Ron Clark, who is acting as chairman of the event.

"We really intend to give them hell this year," Clark commented. He outlined four tasks for the freshmen next week, wearing dinks, carrying books for upper classmen, saluting upper classmen, and bowing to a monument when passing.

Clark stated that the monument will be erected by the sophmores. Last year the freshmen class succeeded in stealing the monument and Clark challenged this year's frosh to repeat the theft.

Freshmen who break the rules of dink week will be punished at kangaroo court Thursday noon in front of the cafeteria.

The freshmen will receive their chance for revenge at the frosh-soph scramble Friday afternoon in the field house area. A tug-o'-war, relays, and other contests will mark the scramble.

Dink wink will be concluded with a casual dinner-dance Friday-night.

Chas. Hayes is in charge of kangaroo court while Leo Warren is chairman of the scramble.

Press Conference Begins Tomorrow

Members and pledges of Beta Theta chapter of Alpha Phi Gamma, national honorary journalistic fraternity, will serve as chairmen of the various panels at the second annual Fall Press Conference, sponsored by the Central Valley Scholastic Journalism Association. This year's conference will be held on the Sacramento Junior College campus Saturday, October 1.

Petitions Circulate For Class Voting

Nominating petitions will circulate next week for candidates for offices in three of the four classes at Sacramento State College.

Vacancies in the senior and sophomore classes will be filled and a full slate of freshman officers will be elected October 14 following a week of campaigning.

The senior class will elect a secretary as this office was not contested last fall. The sophomore class will select a secretary to replace Betty Breezly, who resigned before taking office. The incoming freshmen will elect a president, vice president, secretary, treasurer and student council representative.

Signed petitions must be returned by noon Friday to Dr. Roberta Christie's office in 220 Administration building.

Sport Dance Set Tomorrow Night

Sacramento State College will hold its first after-game dance in the Grant Union high school girls' gym following the game between the Hornets and Treasury Island Navy tomorrow.

Bob Matterola's band will play for the sport dance to which only SSC students and their guests are invited. Admission will be 25 cents for ASSSC card holders and 50 cents for their guests.

Pat Nolan is the general chairman of the dance, assisted by Beverly Jopson, reception; Connie Knutsen, Judy Margets, Patty Merz and Ben Berkel, decorations; Patty Kozicki, Beverlee Cooper and Beverleen Egetkhanoff, refreshments; Betty and Don Kast, publicity; Denny Green, tickets, and Shirley Cuneo, clean-up.

Faculty sponsors will be Harold H. Wolf and David A. Strong.

Council Votes Publications Board

Student council voted unanimously to approve a proposed publications board to function as the policy-making body for Sacramento State College's three publications, The Hornet, the Statesman and the SSCribe. The action was taken during the regular student council meeting Monday afternoon.

The board, proposed to council by Dr. Donald W. Bailey, dean of students, will set up a more formalized policy-making body than has previously existed. The new publications board will consist of five student and five faculty members including the editors of the three publications, the coordinator of publications, the ASSSC president, the faculty advisors for the three publications, one faculty member at large to be appointed by the college president and one administrator, also appointed by the president. The Student Association manager would be an exofficio member.

Council also authorized President Zane Vorhees to appoint a coordinator of publicity to oversee the on-campus bulletin boards, supply posters for ASSSC functions and do other duties pertaining to publicity. Dr. Earl Segrest made the motion under Article VII of the ASSSC constitution which permits the president to appoint "any other coordinators as he deems necessary." Vorhees made no appointment at that time.

At the same time council discussed a bid by Alpha Phi Omega, social fraternity, to maintain the bulletin boards.

Vorhees appointed a four-mem-

A Winning Football Team

Tomorrow night Sacramento State College's Hornets will go into battle against the Treasure Island Navy team in the second game of SSC's second football season.

Last year, as Sacramento State students looked forward to the first home game of the season, they had little but hope to bolster their spirits. They had a green, new team, one that had been defeated, 46-0, by the San Diego Navy Bluejackets the previous week. As the season progressed, Sacramento State students became accustomed to football, but also as the season progressed, spirit collapsed.

The picture this year is far different. The Hornet team has grown to a considerable size, there are several lettermen returning from last year, and last week SSC WON ITS FIRST GAME! The first winning game in the history of any school is an important one, and it is especially significant that the Hornets won the first game of the season.

Last year, in these columns, the Hornet team was compared to the grass on campus, which was just coming up. This fall the grass is strong and hardy, and no amount of trampling will kill it. Likewise the Hornet team is strong and hardy, in spirit as well as in body. A year of trampling has killed neither grass nor football on this campus.

November 10, 1953 is a historic date in the story of Sacramento State College, for on this date Student Council approved initiation of an "intercollegiate football program in 1954, assuming that it may be realized without discrimination against other student activities." In the past year the Associated Students of Sacramento State College have proved that they can support football without jeopardizing other activities on campus.

Now that State has a winning team, it is up to the students to show what football can do for a college. Those who shouted "We want football!" in the fall of 1953 felt that football would add to the well-rounded program of extra-curricular and scholastic activities of the college.

Last week, as registration ended, Sacramento State had 2,192 full time students. Every one of these has paid a $10 student activities fee and is admitted free to home games of the Hornets. There are six song leaders and five yell leaders, as well as a 20-member rally committee to lead rooters.

Hornet gridders brought home a victory last week, for the first time in the history of SSC. They proved they have the determined spirit necessary for a winning team. Tomorrow night at 8 p.m., in the Grant stadium, all members of the ASSSC will have an opportunity to share in the spirit.

Infringement of Independence

Oone of the most noticeable aspects of the Sacramento State College campus, according to strangers to the campus and students, alike, is the apparent maturity and independence of the students.

Tuesday night, Student Council, at the request of the administration, appointed a committee to form policy on closing of the cafeteria and library during assemblies. Last semester the library was closed during several assemblies, at which outside speakers appeared, and caused much comment from students. It is impossible to force adult college students to attend assemblies against their will, and any attempt to do so is an infringement upon their independence.

If effort is made to prepare assemblies which will attract students and hold their interest, no closing of library or cafeteria facilities will be necessary to force attendance.

There is no controversy over the fact that clinking of coffee cups adds little to assemblies held in the cafeteria and the closing of food service during the assemblies helped to alleviate the situation. In the case of assemblies held in the gym or, in the future, in the Little Theater, it seems rather juvenile to close these facilities in the hope that it will force students to attend the assembly program.

ASSSC President Zane Vorhes has appointed a committee of four students, one from each class, to set up a tentative policy, to be presented at Student Council Tuesday night. Homer Brown, Inter-Club Council vice president and chairman of the committee, represents the senior class. Patti Jo Lilleland, freshman; Judy Burch, sophomore; and Bob Zaro, junior, make up the committee. Opinions of students should be brought to them for action.

That was last year. Now we've won one.

STATEMENTS

By MEL PINSLER

(The ideas expressed in this column are those of the author and do not necessarily represent the opinions of The Hornet.)

Another domestic upheaval 'way south of the border has just marched into history. There are two things that characterize the Latin American temperament to the North American mind: revolutions and gaudy uniforms.

It would be making too much of this affection for colorful garb however, to say that our brightly arrayed neighbors to the south fight for gaud and country.

So after 10 years the regime of Juan D. Peron has toppled. It just goes to prove that out of each life a little reign must fall. Peron, formerly a colonel, was succeeded by a major general. They always did say that rank has its privileges.

Major General Eduardo Lonardi has been sworn in as provisional president. This means that he'll be president providing there isn't another revolution. Meanwhile, amid all the tumult and shooting, Peron hied himself off to seek asylum under the flag of Paraguay. In other words, this is just a new way of playing hied and seek.

The "D" in Peron's name stands for Domingo, which is also the Spanish word for Sunday. The revolt took place on a Monday, which means that Monday was the end of Sunday.

A look backward into the past reveals that the first explorer of Argentina, one Juan Diaz De Solis, was killed and devoured by natives in the year 1515. Even in those days the people had an appetite for disposing of unwanted persons.

The city of Buenos Aires itself has had a stormy history. The first attempt at founding the city in 1535 had to be given up because of marauding Indians. Later, during the French revolutionary wars the British sent two expeditions against Buenos Aires. After this there were the struggles for independence from Spain. And now after more unrest the city has settled down once again. Its citizens may be wondering "what next?" They didn't know, but they are probably hoping it won't happen for a long time.

Students to Hear Orientation Talks

Post registration orientation will commence Thursday, October 6, with the opening lecture Why Are You in College? by Meryl Englander at 10 a.m. in 212 Douglass hall.

There are eight scheduled lecture-discussion meetings designed to help students do better college work, equip them more fully for every day living, supplement the material given in general education classes, and encourage them to take more general education electives.

Thursday's session will consist of a 20-minute lecture delivered by Englander and a question and answer period to give students a chance to air their problems and discover their own genuine emotional reasons for attending college.

The tentative dates, topics, and lecturers for the seven remaining sessions are: October 11, Studying Successfully, Dr. Edwin L. Klingelhofer; October 20, How to Prep Those Mid-terms, Dr. Lawrence M. Brammer; October 25, Tips on Taking Mid-terms, Dr. Douglas Mitchell; November 3, Speeding Your Reading, Klingelhofer; November 17, Choosing Your Vocation, Englander; December 1, Understanding Your Personality, Mitchell; January 12, Are You Ready for Marriage?, Brammer.

In addition to those topics listed, students will be asked to suggest topics they would like discussed.

Although the program is especially planned for freshmen, all students are invited to attend.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

(To insure publication of letters, writers must include their names. Correspondence can be delivered or mailed to The Hornet office, 111 Douglas hall, Sacramento State College, or given to any staffer.)

No letters were received by the Editor for this week's issue.

Press Conference Will Meet At SJC

Ted Smith, Norm Kempster, Sherwood DeWein, Patty Merz, Jackie Glass, Kay Kersey, Diana Lions and April Pettijohn are the members acting as chairmen. Pledges who will serve as chairmen for the conference are Karen Ray, Doris Richardson and Mel Pinsler.

The Central Valley Scholastic Journalism Association is sponsored by Sacramento State College, where the conference is held in the spring. Dr. Clyde C. Parker, associate professor of journalism, is executive secretary of the association's executive board.

Purpose of the conference is to better acquaint high school students with the journalistic methods of other high schools and to enable the students to exchange ideas.

The conference, directed this year by Loy Laney, instructor of journalism at Sacramento Junior College, includes discussion sessions and workshop groups. This year the association will issue charter membership certificates to 29 high schools.

ICC Hears Report Of WUS Chairman

Inter-Club Council heard a report by Carolyn Huntley, World University Service drive chairman, regarding club participation in the drive Tuesday morning.

Miss Huntley urged all clubs to participate in the fund-raising project which is scheduled to run November 14-18. She requested that all clubs furnish her with a written report on their proposed project by October 14.

ICC also:

Discussed participation of clubs in the homecoming car parade.

Discussed future plans for the club fair, but took no action.

Heard a report by Betty Morr, Women's Recreation Association president, urging all clubs to enter teams in the WRA intramural program.

ICC will meet again next Thursday morning in the Ribera room at 10 a.m.

J. R. Cox Replaces Bus Ad Chairman

John R. Cox, associate professor of business administration has been appointed to act as temporary chairman of the division of business administration according to Dr. Guy A. West, president.

Cox will assume the duties of Dr. William R. Blackler, who has been advised by his physician not to resume his position as the division chairman until November 1.

Dr. West announced that Mun Q. Mah has been employed to teach part of the classes of Cox and Blackler.

Vollbrecht Exhibit At Home Parade

A trio of mahogany chickens and an abstract pugilist head are among the sculptures on exhibit at Sacramento's Parade of Homes, donated by Ernest Vollbrecht, assistant professor of art. The use of copper was employed in carving the chickens from wood, and the head of a fighter retains the shape of the triangular stone from which it originated.

Vollbrecht said he believes that sculpture plays an important decorative part in the modern home, a role which has been neglected by American homemakers.

He is a perennial exhibitor of sculpture in the Kingsley exhibit at Crocker art gallery and has donated the mobiles which hang in the campus cafeteria.

Interviews Slated For Majorettes

Interviews will be held next week for all candidates for majorette positions with the Sacramento State College band according to Norman J. Hunt, assistant professor of music and band leader.

Hunt stated that any SSC coed can try out. Interviews will be held in the music department office, he added.

Opera Guild Give Tickets For Faust

The Sacramento Opera Guild has allotted 20 student tickets to Sacramento State College music students for the San Francisco Opera Company production of Faust. The opera is being brought to the Memorial auditorium by the guild and will be presented on October 9 at 5 p.m.

The 20 students will receive $3.60 tickets for one dollar, the difference being made up by the guild. Mrs. Joseph O'Neil of Sacramento is in charge of the student tickets.

Orchestra Slates Regular Concerts

The Sacramento Philharmonic orchestra, recently joined by the Philharmonic Chorus, has scheduled five regular concerts during the 1955-56 season.

Jakob Gimpel, famed pianist, will open the series on November 3 in the Sacramento High School auditorium. Philharmonic Conductor, Fritz Berens, has announced that Norman Lamb will also appear as guest artist that evening. The four regularly scheduled concerts are: A German Requiem concert with guest violinist Julian Olevsky, concert with guest pianist Karl Ulrich Schnable, and La Traviata in concert version. All concerts are performed by the Sacramento Philharmonic orchestra with Berens conducting.

Tickets may be obtained at the Eaglet Theater Box Office. A student price of $2.75 rather than the regular admission of $5 and $7.50 is available.

Music Club Picks Ushers For Faust

Sacramento State College music department has chosen twenty music students to serve as ushers for the opera Faust, the Sacramento Celebrity Series, and other events. In return for an hour of ushering, the students attend all concerts free of charge and may sit in the seats of their choice.

The following students will serve as ushers: Patty Merz, Sherilynn Townes, Beverleen Egetkhanoff, Gail Tendershot, Audrey Cole, Jerrie Houseworth, Penny Anton, Elaine Durfee, Fanny Kirkopolos, Pat Brunswick, Bonnie Gardner, Margaret Hooper, Beverly Bernardo, Jeanette Shapley, Sandra Rhodes, Marlene Nance, Richard Shapley, Brian Roberts, Dale Gardner, and Gene Chesley.

New Building Set For Classroom Use Early In November

"Classrooms in the Music-Speech building should be ready for use in November," announced Dr. F. Blair Mayne, executive dean. However, the Little Theatre probably will not be finished until January or February.

The building contains a large band and chorus rehearsal room, several music classrooms, a speech clinic, a radio studio, and several faculty offices as well as practice rooms and a Little Theatre. Provision has been made for a future television studio, but it will not be equipped for quite some time. Mayne said, "The important thing, though, is the fact that the building is almost completed and everyone is anxious to begin to use it." The Little Theatre, which seats 450 people, faces the campus. Future plans for the building include the addition of more classrooms and a large auditorium.

Plan New Classroom

General classroom three, which will contain 18 rooms, primarily for social science and business administration, is being planned and construction should start sometime this winter. Construction should also begin this spring on a Life Science building which contains 10 laboratories and classrooms.

These projects have already been financed by the State Legislature and the designs have been completed. The State Legislature is being requested to provide money in the next legislative session for the student health building, a swimming pool and a corporation yard.

Will Have Pool

Plans for the swimming pool call for an outdoor U-shaped pool, so as to provide for three distinct swimming instructional areas. The water and the decks surrounding the pool will be heated. SSC students may us the pool not only for classes, but also for recreational purposes. Located between the men's and women's gym, the pool will be 100 feet long and 60 feet wide at each end.

NPA Will Publish Students' Poetry

College students are urged by the National Poetry Association to submit original verse for publication in the 13th edition of the Annual Anthology of College Poetry.

Contributors may write on any theme and in any form they wish. However, in order to give the greatest number an opportunity for publication, shorter efforts are preferred. Closing date for publication is November 5.

Manuscripts must be typed or written on one side of a sheet. Contributors may submit as many manuscripts as desired. Each manuscript must contain student's home address, name of college and college address.

Entrees may mail manuscripts to National Poetry Association, 3210 Selby Ovenue, Los Angeles 34, Calif.

Stars in "Hamlet"

THREE IN ONE — Laurence Olivier is the producer, director and star of the $2,000,000 film production of Hamlet, now appearing at the Guild Theater.

Theater Offers Special On Movie

A special admission price of 75 cents is available to SSC students for the Academy Award-winning film, Hamlet, currently playing at the Guild Theater.

The film, which won the Academy Award as the best picture of the year and also won for Olivier the Award as the best actor of the year, is a J. Arthur Rank enterprise.

Hamlet is the second Shakespearean film made by Olivier to win an academy award. His Henry V was also widely acclaimed and won a special award in the year in which it was released.

Olivier once again performs a three-fold role in Hamlet as star, producer and director. With him in the cast are Jean Simmons as Ophelia, Basil Sydney as King Claudius, Eileen Herlie as the queen, Felix Aymer as Polonius, Norman Woodland as Horatio and Terrance Morgan as Laertes.

The film will remain at the Guild Theater until next Friday.

Eaglet Opens Series With My 3 Angels

Presentation of My Three Angels, will open the thirteenth season of the Eaglet Play Series on October 13. Six plays have been scheduled, each of which will play six nights at the Eaglet Theater, 15th and H Streets. Season tickets for reserved seats will be available for $7.50.

SSC Forms Debate Team

Dr. D. E. Moore, assistant professor of Speech and English, has announced the formation of the Sacramento State College debating team. Under the direction of Moore the debate team is presently composed of members of the forensics seminar, a speech course offered this semester for the first time.

Particular activities of the SSC debate team will include a series of debates and oratorical tournaments with teams from San Jose and San Francisco State Colleges. The debate topic of the year, chosen by the Speech Association of America, is, Resolved: That the non-agricultural industries should guarantee their employees an annual wage.

The present members of the debate team are: Bruce Asher, Doris Caldwell, Benjamin Fleming, William Taylor, Mary Anne Radich, James Ramez, Lenore Vasche, Arliene Weatherhead, John Wells and Roy Williams.

SSC students not enrolled in the seminar but interested in debating activity are requested to contact Moore.

Bohr Plans Series Of Crocker Talks

Russell Bohr, new art instructor on campus, will conduct a series of six lectures at Crocker art gallery. Talks are scheduled for the first Saturday of each month, and will deal with problems of the development of drawing from earliest to modern times, the problems of attribution, and consideration of Renaissance and Baroque drawings in the collection.

Bohr considers the exhibit of more than one thousand Old Masters, which constitutes the fifth and sixth largest collection of drawings in the country, as "a most important and interesting but practically unknown, collection."

He is cataloging these works under direction of University of Pennsylvania and Mills College.

Steak Fry Set For Educators At Music Meet

A steak fry will welcome new members to Music Educators National Conference on Sunday at 3 p.m.

Howard Scribner will host the first meeting at his home in Rocklin, where swimming and other recreation facilities will be available. Dancing and entertainment are features of the evening.

Rides will be furnished, if needed, by contacting Lillian Nance, music department secretary, in TB-4.

Beverly Bernardo, secretary-treasurer of the club, invites anyone interested in music to enjoy the barbecue and meet the music faculty and MENC members and officers.

Other officers of the organization this semester are George Gianopulos, president; Bert Gower, vice president, and Pat Aaron, ICC representative.

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS by Dick Bibler

"Her system is to study books . . . I study the professors."

Five On-Campus Clubs Promote Religion Among SSC Students

Religion on the Sacramento State College campus is promoted by five clubs of different denominations.

Newest of the groups is Wesley club, in its first semester at SSC. Sponsored by the Methodist church, its members participate in discussion, services, social and recreational activities both on and off campus.

Regularly enrolled Methodists meet at least twice a month.

The club is trying, mainly, to promote the attendance of college-age people at community churches.

Lutherans Active

Lutheran Students organization has been active on campus for over a year. Fellowship is the bond of the club when they unite for regular meetings. Topic discussions are usually featured at meetings, and are lead by a local pastor. Refreshments and games are often part of the meetings.

An annual convention of Lutheran Students at a mountain camp is a special event of the organization.

Fellowship and Christian living through prayer, Bible study and social activities is the goal of Hornet Christian Fellowship.

The group, composed of all denominations, meets regularly to build in its members the personal knowledge of Christ, through study of the word of God.

Bible studies will be organized this semester under the direction of the club officers.

Christian Science Meets

Christian Science organization meets on the second and fourth Thursdays of each month at 7:30 p.m. in TD-1.

By holding both business and testimony meetings, the club provides a chance for Christian Scientists to get together and to strengthen their understanding of their religion.

Besides correcting any false concepts of the Christian Science religion, the group provides an activity for anyone interested in the religion.

Newman Club

Newman club is designed to serve the spiritual, social and cultural interests of Catholic college students.

As the spiritual program is considered most important in the club, communion breakfasts, religious discussions and talks and retreats head the group's activities.

Cultural and educational activities are sometimes incorporated in the religious activities, as in discussions on a book of Christian ethics, which the club plans to conduct this semester.

Social events cover a large portion of the club calendar. Traditional activity of the group is the semi-annual pizza party, which is held at the beginning of each semester, on campus. Tentative plans also include a hayride, skating party, joint initiation of new members with Sacramento Junior College Newman club, and the annual province convention held this year in Long Beach.

Meetings take place at 3 p.m. on first and third Wednesdays in the Ribera room, and on second and fourth Wednesdays at 8 p.m. at St. Thomas Aquinas center, 11th and K streets.

Each year the religious clubs present First Nighter, a social for new students, held at the beginning of the fall semester.

Res Publica Sets Meet Wednesday

Res Publica, the public affairs society on campus, will hold its first meeting of the semester in the Sierra room at noon Wednesday.

Dr. Lyman Glenny, associate professor of government, will lead the discussion on the topic of the political situation in the nation at present and possible outcomes of this situation.

Res Publica is open to all members having a desire to be better informed about current events and problems pertaining to the national, state and local levels of government. The club investigates opportunities available to college graduates in the various fields of government.

Res Publica will hold two meetings each month. One meeting will be held at the noon hour and the other will be held in the evening in conjunction with the American Public Administration Society which meets once a month on campus.

Mary Ann Butler Announces Engagement To H. Hintz

Mrs. Marie L. Butler announced the engagement of her daughter Mary Ann, to Hamilton Hintz, Jr. last week. The couple plan a wedding in February, after which they will reside in Washington, D. C., where Hintz is stationed in the armed forces. The future bride graduated from St. Francis high school, and attends Sacramento State College. Here she is majoring in social science, is an Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, and is affiliated with Newman club and Young Democrats. She is the daughter of the late Lawrence G. Butler.

Hintz, son of the senior and Mrs. Hintz, graduated from C. K. McClatchy high school, Sacramento Junior College and SSC, where he majored in Economics.

Hintz Chief Justice

He served as Chief Justice of the Supreme Court and president of the '54 alumni club. Both he and his fiance were members of the Model United Nations.

The bride-elect will attend George Washington University while Hintz completes his military service. Since he is on leave from the University of California School of Law, the couple will reside in Berkeley while he finishes his law training.

Their permanent home will be in Sacramento.

Fraternity Makes Academic Award

An Academic award will be presented by Xi Theta Chi at its regular meeting Monday, at 9 p.m. in the Ribera room.

The member of the fraternity with the highest grade point average receives the honor each year.

Pledging activities begin at Monday's meeting, when names of prospective pledges will be introduced.

Future social events of the club are under the direction of Chuck Lastufka and Bill Lusk.

The group plans to get together with alumni members during the semester. A committee in charge of arrangements is headed by Ron Limeberger, and includes Bruce Becker, Lastufka, Pete Shepherd and Mack Hanson.

Becker and Lusk were appointed at the last meeting to revise election procedures for the fraternity.

Cosmo Club Plans Welcome Dinner For New Members

New members of Cosmopolitan club will be welcomed at a get-acquainted potluck dinner tonight at 7:30 p.m. in the home of Marilyn Pearson, 411 Crocker Road in Sierra Oaks.

General chairman of the dinner is Mary Ann Rowen; food chairman, Carolyn Huntley; decorations and publicity, Joan Plowe; entertainment, Beverly Gould. Others on the committee include: Pat Carew, Joe Hood and Ben Fleming. For transportation and information call Jay Wallis, HU 4-8432.

Members have been asked to bring a foreign or an American dish. Students and faculty members who are interested in international understanding are invited to attend and bring their friends. Faculty sponsor of the club is Dr. Joe T. McCullough.

Burlesque Star Cause Of Frats' Suspension

The student activities committee has recommended the suspension of Kappa Sigma Fraternity at the University of Southern California because it hired a burlesque star for a stag party.

Suspensions also were asked for nine fraternity members. The action was approved by USC's president, Fred D. Fagg, Jr. The suspensions for hiring the stripper will remain in effect for the rest of the semester.

Kappa Delta Meets

First official meeting of Phi Kappa Delta, secretarial club, will be held tomorrow in the home of Doris Russ. All new members have been invited to get acquainted with the purposes and activities of Phi Kappa Delta.

CLUB NEWS . . . All club news must be turned in to Patty Merz, society editor, in the Hornet office, 111 Douglass hall, by Tuesday of each week.

APG Will Initiate Members, Pledges

Initiation of new members and pledges into Alpha Phi Gamma takes place Sunday at the home of Fifi Gurvis.

Initiates are Patty Merz, society editor of The Hornet, and Ed Strong, chief photographer on The Hornet, new members, and Karen Ray, photo editor of the Hornet; Doris Richardson, editor of the Statesman; Knute Martin, feature editor of the Hornet, and Mel Pinsler, Hornet staff member, pledges.

Catalogues are being distributed by members of the journalistic honor fraternity to raise funds for journalism scholarships.

Sophomores Set Up List of Rules For Third Annual Freshman Week

Third annual Frosh Week will start Monday on campus under the direction of the sophomore class. Rules have been set up by a committee of sophomore students for the week. These rules, according to Ron Clark, chairman, are binding on freshmen and violations are punishable by trial at Kangaroo Court on Thursday.

1. Starting Monday every freshman will be expected to wear a dink (rooters cap) while on campus. These can be purchased in the book store for $1.30 and must be worn yellow side out.
2. Bow to the monument (which symbolizes sophomore supremacy) every time they pass it. It will be located between the cafeteria and Douglass hall.
3. Carry books for any upperclassman upon request. (During this week sophomores will be considered upperclassmen.)
4. Women must curtsey to all upper classmen when meeting them.
5. Men must bow to all upperclassmen when meeting them.
6. All freshmen must pick up and wear identification cards, available at the bookstore. These must be signed by one class or Associated Students officer.
7. Freshmen must salute upperclassmen humbly and say "Hooray for the wheels!"
8. All freshmen must be present at Kangaroo Court Thursday noon between the book store and the cafeteria.

Democrats Hold Get-Acquainted Party Tonight

Young Democrats will attend a get-acquainted party tonight in the home of Judy Burch.

Members and interested students plan to start the party after tonight's rally, and will enjoy refreshments, entertainment and dancing.

Carol Farnsworth is general chairman, assisted by Barbara Rickard, who is in charge of food.

Included in the entertainment are a skit, directed by Zane Vorhes and Jack Duke, and a song by Judy Burch.

Ron Clark is planning games, and Joe McElvaney will supervise clean-up.

Officers in charge of this semester's activities are Patty Kozicki, president; Elaine Hartley, women's vice president; Ron Clark, men's vice president; Nora Tucker, recording secretary; Arliene Wright, corresponding secretary, and Holland Wallis, treasurer.

Engineering Program Expanding At SSC

Edwin B. Weinberg, associate professor of engineering and coordinator of engineering and applied science, announced that Sacramento State College's engineering department is expanding rapidly. This semester, according to Weinberg, 55 full-time students are majoring in engineering and applied science, all of whom are taking a full program.

Although part-time student data is not immediately available, approximately 150 part-time students are taking courses in the field of engineering or applied science.

Newman Club Will Meet To Discuss Pizza Party

Newman club meets Wednesday in the Ribera room at 3 p.m.

Plans for the club's pizza party top the meeting agenda. The party, which features pizza and root beer, entertainment and dancing, is scheduled for Wednesday, October 19, in the SSC cafeteria.

Wednesday's business meeting is the first afternoon meeting the club has held at SSC.

Class Seeks Alums For Grad Reunion

In planning their class reunion the class of 1950 would like to locate the following persons: Gilbert A. Anderson, Paul J. ## Alpha Phi Omega Will Meet Monday

Alpha Phi Omega holds its regular meeting Monday, at 7:30 p.m. in the Sierra Room.

Members will discuss plans for activities this semester. The group is a national service fraternity.

Delegates Attend CSTA Conclave

Officers and two committee members of the California Student Teachers Association will attend the Northern Section Leadership Conference on October 14 and 15. The conference will be held at the Sonoma Mission Inn, in Sonoma.

Delegates from SSC planning to attend are: Anita Fickewirth, president; Johanna Tuma, vice president; Lois Mead, secretary; Rosary Weingart, treasurer; Sally Desenfants and Winona Cound, committee members.

BASS — Biological Association of Sacramento State meets today at noon in LS 113. The club is organized for students interested in natural sciences.

Speech-Hearing Unit Will Meet Tonight

Speech and Hearing association starts off the semester tonight with a meeting in the Sierra room at 8 p.m.

The combined social and business gathering will introduce new members to the club. New officers will be announced in the Hornet next week. Dr. Maryjane Rees is sponsor of the group.

Alpha Psi Omega To Meet Sunday

Election of officers for the year will highlight the first meeting of Alpha Psi Omega, national honorary drama fraternity. Members will gather in the Theater Workshop at 7:30 p. m. Sunday for the elections, and to plan the year's activities.

Jim Condon, director of the fraternity, is in charge.

Press Club Will Elect Secretary Wednesday

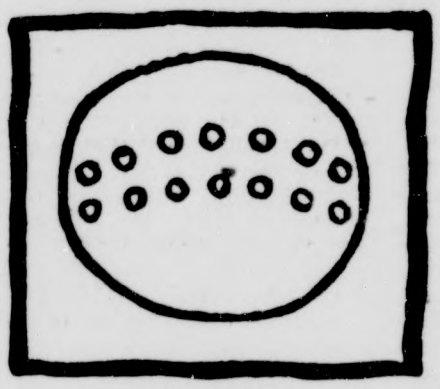

Press club members will elect a secretary at its next meeting Wednesday at noon in 110 Douglass hall.

Discussion of plans for a Homecoming float, and selection of possible projects for the World University Service drive are part of the agenda.

Hornets Add First Football Win

Sports Corner

By DEL ROBERTS

The Hornet's second football team in history hit the field with only one way to go—UP! The situation looks good. After finishing last season with less than 20 lads in uniform, the Strong man now has over 50 eager beavers. Where did the impetus come from? Forty-one are frosh and sophs. Each with two or three years eligibility left. No wonder the future looks bright.

Sacramento now boasts its first football win. Carrying a full intercollegiate athletic schedule, in a way, puts Hornetville on the sports map. In the season's opener, the boys, of course, made a lot of mistakes. But no one seems to care. They won! Southern Oregon had two advantages, those of size and experience. As one Sacramento lineman put it, the Hornet's fighting spirit made the difference.

Tomorrow night may be another red letter event. The Strong-men take on Treasure Island Navy. Service teams are often an unknown quality. The question is: Do the Sailors take to land as well as they take to water? The best way to find out is to be there tomorrow night.

Since this is tree climbing season this writer will join the others out on the limb and predict the final November Far West conference standings. San Francisco State, Chico State, Humboldt State, SACRAMENTO STATE, Cal Aggies, and University of Nevada should finish in that order. Season's end may find the Hornets fighting it out for fourth place with the neighboring Mustangs.

In other conference games this week San Francisco should rout the University of Nevada's Wolfpack. The Wolves' brand new coach, Gordon McEachron, will sport a light team that figures to be too green to match the Gators. Humboldt State is favored to edge Davis' "cow college." The Mustangs may nevertheless put up quite a struggle, and with a few breaks could even upset Arcata's Lumberjacks. Chico State versus Pepperdine in Los Angeles is rated a toss up.

Recent interest in the world heavyweight championship bout, plus the addition of boxing coach Henry Elespuru to the staff caused the recurrence of rumors which have been floating around the river campus for a couple of years. The locker room prophets are predicting the Hornet athletic program will soon be rounded out by another real he-man sport, boxing. The possession of a grid team in many ways marks State as a full grown institution. This completes the big four of modern collegiate athletics, viz., basketball, baseball, track and football. Two so-called "minor sports" have been around for a good while, in the form of golf and tennis. However the coming of boxing and eventually gymnastics to the local scene would not only mean the emergence of SSC out of a short adolescence, but simultaneously launch them on the path of athletic maturity.

Boxing would fit in with the activities of other Far Westerners quite well. Chico State, Cal Aggies, and Nevada are among this area's schools with boxing clubs. Furthermore Sacramento is host to the annual Pacific Coast boxing championships which are held in the local Memorial Auditorium each spring.

Hats off this week to guard John Skube, for his aggressive defensive play against the Redraiders . . . to Fred Moeller, 195 pound end who had the honor of making the Hornet's first winning touchdown . . . to Roger Owen, Eddie Soto, Bud Miller, and Dave Hotell who came through with good performances when they were sorely needed . . . and to the whole coaching staff and their charges for at last bringing home the bacon for the victory hungry Hornets.

SSC Outpoints Southern Oregon In Opener, 7-6

ASHLAND, Ore.—The Sacramento State College Hornets made history when they won a hard-fought football victory over the Southern Oregon College Red Raiders here Saturday night. The 7-6 score will go down in the record books as the first football win in the history of SSC.

The Hornets scored in the first quarter after being caught deep in their own territory.. Roger Owen opened the two-play scoring drive with a 56-yard gallop to the Oregon 40. Bill Kimball, SSC quarterback, capitalized on the play by calling a play which completely threw the Raiders out of position. Kimball pitched out to Eddie Soto, left half, who threw the ball 40 yards to end Fred Moller for the score. Lloyd Snelson kicked the extra point that was to decide the game.

Defense Perks Up

In the series that led up to the Hornet TD drive SOC drove to the six-yard line. At this point State's defense came to life. Halfback Don Korns plowed for two through the middle. Quarterback Bill Seymour's flat pass was knocked down by Owen. Hornet Dave Hotell stopped Korns for a yard loss and Seymour, bootlegging to his right, lost four on fourth down as Moeller cut him down. So the visitors took over on the nine.

The Red Raiders score came with two minutes remaining in the game. The 36-yard scoring drive was started when Oregon recovered a Kimball fumble on the Sacramento 36. Key plays in the drive were a six-yard gain with fourth and four on the 30 by fullback Francis Rehberg and a five-yard offside penalty against the Hornets. The Raiders' score came on a three-yard pass over the middle from Seymour to end Walt McCoy.

Brown Blocks Point

The try for point by end Hank Smith was blocked by guard Bob Brown. Noel McKee, Hornet center, opened the hole that Brown broke through.

The Hornet defense gave up 11 first downs but only a total of 147 yards gained. Though Sacra-

Ski Team Gathers For First Meeting

Sacramento State's first ski team held its initial meeting Tuesday. Purposes of the gathering were to find out names and experience of prospective members, discuss the budget and decide where and when to hold workouts.

Twelve men, with an average of six years experience each, attended. All have at least two years of collegiate competition left.

Bart Newton, coach and manager, is assisted by Red Cox and Jack Skram. Newton urges all interested persons to contact him or attend the next announced meeting.

SSC To Organize Bowling League

Management of the Alhambra Bowl has announced that they will set up a special bowling league for Sacramento State College. This will start organizing about November 1.

Cost will be 90 cents for three games. Alhambra Bowl will furnish the shoes. A participant in this league will also be allowed to bowl practice games for 30 cents apiece between 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. Monday through Friday. Watch The Hornet for further developments.

Today Is Deadline For WRA Sport

Completed rosters for women's intra-mural badminton must be submitted today according to Women's Recreation Association president Betty Morr.

Competition between campus clubs is set to begin Monday, October 13 and run each Monday and Thursday in the gymnasium.

Two other sports, golf and hockey, will also be featured this fall according to Miss Morr although they will not be on the inter club basis. Hockey practice is being held Tuesday and Thursday afternoons at 2 p.m. Golf plans are still tentative, but Miss Morr announced that players would receive a special rate at a local golf course.

Class Schedules Needed

All Korean veterans who have not turned in a trial program to Mrs. Joy C. Greenwood, clerk of the Veterans Affairs, are urged to do so as soon as possible. Mrs. Greenwood stated, "Enrollment certificates can not be sent in to the main office of the Veterans Administration until this is completed."

ler's pass-catching mate at right end, also received minor injuries but should start in their regular positions.

Tomorrow night's lineup will see Voss and Berton Root at ends, Dave Hotell and Neal Amick at tackles, Leonard Mazorra and Skube at guards, McKee at center, Bill Kimball at quarterback, Roger Owen and Ed Soto at the halves, and Bud Miller at fullback.

Bob Brown, guard; Dave Roberts, center; Joe Platina, John Beaver and Bob Anstead, all backs, are also slated for action.

Strong named Soto and McKee as co-captains for tomorrow night's clash with the highly touted Navy eleven.

Pirate coach Paul LaMont played end at Notre Dame in the Irish's winning war years under famed Frank Lahey. The Islanders' probable starting line-up will include: D. Swann and G. Wellman, ends; J. Wallis and F. Kersey, tackles; R. McNeil and S. Squires, guards; E. McDowell, center; R. Ottoson, W. Johnson, H. Castleberry and J. Rabiola, backs.

SSC JACKETS ONLY— Only Sacramento State College lettermen's jackets are permissable on the SSC campus according to the Green and Gold Society. If athletes desire to wear jackets from other colleges, the lettering must be removed.

Cal Ramblers Defeat Aggies on Davis Field

DAVIS—The failure to convert after scoring provided the margin of victory for the University of California Ramblers as they defeated the Aggies from the University of California at Davis 7-6 last Friday night.

There was little to choose between the teams except for Steve Glagola's toe. The Napa sophomore planted the ball squarely between the uprights in the third quarter, following a 60-yard march by the Ramblers climaxed by a short pass to end Dick Hartman for the score.

The Aggie touchdown came early in the second quarter when Tom Adamson received a Rambler punt on his own 25-yard line and raced the remaining distance into the end zone.

Chico State Tips Presidio Soldiers

CHICO—Last year's Far Western conference runner-up, the Chico State College Wildcats, registered a 12-6 victory over the soldiers from the San Francisco Presidio in their first football outing of the 1955 season here Friday evening.

With the contest deadlocked at 6-6, substitute quarterback Carl Bloss threw a 20-yard aerial to halfback Mike Adams for the six points.

HIGHLIGHTER:

Kimball Assumes Quarterback Job

Bill Kimball, first string Hornet quarterback, was the man who engineered the Green and Gold to their historic first victory over Southern Oregon's Red Raiders.

The 20-year-old junior comes from Redding, where he piloted Shasta High to two consecutive conference championships. Kimball is used to playing on winning teams.

While at Shasta Junior College the lanky 165-pounder's squad won the Golden Valley crown in 1953 and came in third in 1954.

Quarterback Kimball, who majors in business education, was moved up to the first team on the basis of his stellar performance in Ashland.

Committee Plans For Homecoming

Final plans for the sixth annual Homecoming celebration at Sacramento State College were set at a Tuesday meeting of the Homecoming committee.

Jack Duke and Laquita Elder are in charge of activities for the celebration, which will be the second football Homecoming in the history of SSC. Publicity has been released by the Alumni Association to its members. Special emphasis this year will be placed on the reunion of the class of 1950.

Bob Nelson, president of Green and Gold varsity club, and members of the organization are in charge of the contest and election of a Homecoming queen. Prizes will be awarded to the outstanding club and the outstanding individual entry in the super-car-parade which will precede the Homecoming game.

mento got only four first downs they made 204 total yards.

Four Hornets Injured

Four of the Hornet squad came out of the game with injuries, but none were serious. Moeller and end Clark Massey received hip pointers, McKee an elbow injury, and John Skube a possible cracked rib. Moeller may be out of action for a couple of weeks.

Coach Dave Strong of the Hornets termed the game a "complete team victory. There's no doubt we have a better club than last year. They fought hard and made three goal line stands. Offensively we need polish."

BASKETBALL—All men interested in either freshmen or varsity basketball are requested to report to Hal Wolfe in Gym 120 immediately.

Santa Barbara Lost To Whittier on Friday

SANTA BARBARA—With the running and passing of tailback Carl Palmer dominating the play, the Whittier College Poets rolled to an easy 20-7 victory over the University of California at Santa Barbara last Friday night before 4,000 fans at La Playa Stadium.

Palmer hit quarterback Mickey Bevilacqua for an eight-yard scoring thrust in the first period and then returned a Santa Barbara punt 58 yards to pay dirt before the first half ended. Fullback John McNichols scored the final Poet touchdown on a 38-yard gallop in the fourth quarter.

The Santa Barbarans' only score came in the third period when fullback Dick Juliano capped a 55-yard drive by crashing the end zone from four yards out.

NURSES—White Caps, nursing organization on campus meets tonight at 7 p.m. in 203 Administration bldg.

Cal Poly Smears Humboldt State

EUREKA — Humboldt State College of the Far Western conference was on the receiving end of a 26-0 setback handed them by the California Poly gridders here Saturday night.

Poly quarterback Jerry Duncan proved the spoiler, as he guided his mates against the defenseless Humboldt eleven.

Duncan connected with Perry Jeter on a 30-yard scoring pass early in the game and then hit James Cox with a nine-yarder for another six points.

Bob Turner passed to Danny Delgado for another touchdown. The play covered 14 yards and came late in the game. James Antoine crashed over from six yards out to end the scoring for the Polyites.

Fresno Dogs Drub SF State Gridders

SAN FRANCISCO—San Francisco State, holders of the 1954 Far Western conference crown, took a 20-12 drubbing from the Fresno State footballers Friday night and in the process lost their outstanding pass catcher, Bob Barron. He is expected to be sidelined for two weeks.

There were no conference games scheduled last weekend, but there are two contests on tap for this week. Nevada will be visiting San Francisco State this evening, with Humboldt State playing host to the California Aggies Saturday night. Chico State will travel to southern California for a date with Pepperdine College.

Mayne Announces Activities Building Planning Progress

Progress in the plans for a new student activities building was announced this week by Dr. F. Blair Mayne, executive dean of Sacramento State College. Finances have been arranged and an architect is in the process of being hired.

"If we hurry too much," Mayne said, "we might end up with a building which is still short of our needs. We don't want to chance having a junky building."

Mayne estimated that the building would be complete before the end of the year, and in all probability, during the spring semester. He said it would take at least six weeks before the plans would be drawn.

"Both the Student Association and the college are fully aware of the need for a student lounge, a snack bar area, and for expanding the book store facilities," said Mayne. "But it is necessary to use all possible space for classroom purposes because of the increased enrollment. It is not now possible to give up classrooms for these other purposes."

Student activities space formerly in the Physical Science building is being utilized this semester for classroom space as an aid to the increased enrollment demands.

Funds for the new building are among the causes for delay in its construction. Original costs of construction were estimated at $40,000 which would allow for a one-story building. However, subsequent plans have indicated a possible need for a two-story structure which might boost the cost to about $60,000.

Of the original $40,000 estimate, $9,000 was pledged by the Student Council, the rest to be made up by the Hornet foundation. The state has not as yet advanced financial aid. This is in accordance with the state policy in the building funds of its colleges.

ber committee to look into the policy of closing the library and the cafeteria food coucessions during ASSSC assemblies. Homer Brown was appointed chairman of the group which consists of members from all four classes. Other members are Bob Zaro, junior; Judy Birche, sophomore, and Patti Jo Littleland, freshman.

Council unanimously approved Vorhees' appointments to various standing committees. The appointments are as follows:

Alumni affairs, Vorhees; assembly planning committee, Joan Fleming, Dick Markson, Carolyn Huntley, Larry Voss, Mary Jo Snyder, and Bob Weber; campus development, Chuck Lastufka and Judy Foote; commencement planning, Creede Anderson and Jim Deal; evaluation and grading policies, Helen Castanho and Norman Wilson; library committee, Carolyn Robinson; loans, scholarships and awards, Joan Severe and Earl Groshart; public relations, Fifi Gurvis and Vorhees; student activities, Bob Tallmon, Sue Bibb, Miss Gurvis and Vorhees; Hornet foundation, Jim Morrow, Bill Lusk and Vorhees.

Council also:

Passed a series of procedural recommendations by the 1954-55 council with the exception that the policy of granting full refunds on ASSSC cards to students drafted into the armed services was reversed.

Authorized the student association manager to strongly encourage assistant yell leaders to either return or replace the sweaters loaned to them by the council.

Voted to allow the song leaders, who finished the year last year, to keep their letters.

Accepted an invitation to dine at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Guy A. West on October 18.

Rescinded by-law 13 pertaining to the student lounge, which no longer exists.

Took no action on a bid by the Stan Kenton organization to sponsor a concert at SSC.

SSC Sets Ginger Play Run In Auditorium

Time Out for Ginger, a football comedy by Ronald Alexander, will be produced in the little theater of the Memorial auditorium October 24 through 29, according to Dr. Carl Thomas, assistant professor of speech and drama.

Cast in the play are Bea Palmquist, Patricia Roland, Lona Isoard, Knute Martin, Jackie Allen, Tod Argante, George Calder, Mike Ellsworth and Wally Hood.
